

Core Services

Housing

Community Engagement

Educational Services

Promote Healthy Living

With services for all generations and interests this center has the potential to become the converging point for all types of community resources.

Affordable housing in a desirable area of town that will help families and individuals find a place to call home in a community with familiar roots.

Bringing the community together allows everyone to collaborate, learn, and get connected with their heritage.

