

Core Services

Community Garden

Food brings families and communities on one table. It tells a communities history and culture. Food is an international language and being enriched in ones culture is essential.

Culinary Skills Development

Basic culinary skills are necessary for a healthy life. Memebers of this circle would become healthier through learning and interacting with the community.

Community Kitchen

Members of the neighborhood can come together for events. They can also rent the venue for events and kitchen to use. Coming together over food is a shared interest among all generations.

Market & Event Catering

