

Core Services

Music Learning

Skills Workshop

Community Affairs

Performance & Event Halls

Music is art, it's history, it's community engagement! Through music people can connect with their past and communicate their present to their community.

In this center music and dance skills are aquired. Also skills in maitaining and repairing musical instruments can be attained.

Members of the neighborhood can come together learn, develop, and portray their skills in music and dance.

